

Privacy policy

I/We agree that the above-mentioned Association of German Hidden Champions as the responsible body may process the personal/company-related data collected in the declaration of membership, such as company, surname, first name, address, telephone, e-mail address, contribution group, exclusively for the purpose of membership administration and the transmission of membership information by the association. These data transfers are necessary for the purpose of the organization.

A data transfer to third parties does not take place. A data use for advertising purposes also does not take place. Upon termination of membership, all personal/company-related data will be deleted, unless they must be retained in accordance with legal requirements. Within the framework of the provisions of the Federal Data Protection Act/the Basic Data Protection Regulation, every member has the right to information about the personal/company-related data stored about him/her by the responsible body. In addition, the member has a right of correction in the event of incorrect data.
